Annual League Conference Housing Opens

The League is continuing our planning for an in-person 106th Annual League Conference this Nov. 16-18 in Atlantic City continues and the hotel booking system is now open! Review the official Housing Map & Rates, then make your reservations online or using the Universal Housing Form, which can be sent in via email, fax, or mail.

The deadline to use the Universal Housing Form is Oct. 8, and Oct. 15 is the deadline to book housing online. Please review the Housing Map and Rates form for cancellation dates.

The Conference website also offers a new preliminary session list and a downloadable Conference Planner under the Conference Information section.

If you have further housing questions, please contact AC Central Reservations at 800-643-0044.

June Issue of NJ Municipalities Magazine Now Available!

The June issue of NJ Municipalities is now available and ushers in summer with a focus on Tourism's Recovery. From historic buildings to the Jersey Shore's beach towns, experts in local government share their insights on how they made it through the pandemic and lessons they are taking into the future.

This month's informative reports include the benefits of a downpayment assistance program for municipalities in Finance Center, along with the latest from Gold Dome, Legislative Update, and Legal Q&A columns. An issue sample and subscription information are available at the magazine section of the NJLM website.

This begins the summer break for NJ Municipalities, but we'll be hard at work putting together information-packed editions for the fall.

Do you have a success story about your municipality or an innovative idea that would benefit other communities? Want to share an opinion relating to an issue impacting local government in an Op-Ed column? Send them in for publication in the League's official magazine, NJ Municipalities. Issues are published monthly October through June. Editorial calendar and guidelines are available online.
